

Patricia L. Daunais, Q.C. practices now only in the area of Wills and Estates and until January, 2011 practiced extensively in Family Law. Pat is Past President of the Calgary Bar Association, Calgary Estate Planning Council, Enviros Group Homes and the Association of Women Lawyers. In 1999, Pat participated on the Executive Fund Raising Committee for the University of Calgary Law School. She has taught business law and property management courses at Mount Royal College and real estate law at the University of Calgary. She lectured at the Alberta Bar Admission course for more than 15 years in a variety of fields including ethics and practice management, and has been the Law Society of Alberta's representative on two Rules of Court Committees. Pat has been a speaker at many conferences and seminars. In 1975 Pat was called to the Alberta Bar and in 1996 received her Queen's Counsel designation. Pat has been peer nominated as one of the Best Lawyers in Canada since 2010. She is considered one of the leading estate lawyers on blended families and the new Will and Succession Act and the new Estate Administration Act of Alberta.